Info-Tage References

For us, the two annual information days are a fixture. They provide us with an additional opportunity to maintain relationships.

Silva Imken, WALA Switzerland

It is rare to strike up a conversation as effortlessly as one does here. Turning to beauty press and collaborating with them was the right decision.

Jörg Abel, Omnimedica

For me, the beauty press Info Day is the semi-annual highlight, as it allows us to look ahead to the upcoming season and discover the latest trends in skincare, hair and body care, as well as decorative cosmetics. It is a fantastic source of information for us journalists.

Sonja Dargatz, freelance journalist

Influencer Event References

From the very first second I felt completely at ease here. The venue is absolutely beautiful and was a perfect choice. Everyone was very friendly and open-minded, and the event was also highly informative. I made some great connections with other influencers as well as with several partners. I got to try out various products—which was really cool—and was even allowed to take a few home with me. We also exchanged contact details so we could stay in touch in the future. I would definitely come back again. It was a very enjoyable event with some really cool people.

Selection of Participating Brands (Influencer Event):

Everything went perfectly—it was a harmonious experience and impeccably organized. This was particularly valuable for us, as we are still relatively new to the market and therefore not yet widely known. The contacts we met were very keen to learn more about our brands and our unique active ingredients. The atmosphere is wonderfully relaxed; we've had some great conversations and established many new contacts. Everyone here really takes the time to engage and shows genuine interest. We would definitely participate again.
